It is with great pleasure that I recommend Mrs. Dollie Adams, for designation as a Certified Protocol Specialist.

Mrs. Adams has been this organization's deputy chief of protocol since 1998 and has served in this position with distinction. She has been personally responsible for organizing and overseeing several large and significant public events at Cummings AFB. These include our base's annual community open house and air show in 2000, 2001, and 2002; a bi-annual community appreciation day in 1999 and 2002; and a joint community-military Fourth of July parade in 2000.

Mrs. Adams has also had primary responsibility for a large array of internal activities and events such as the annual Air Force Major Commander's Conference held last year which was attended by more than 35 Air Force general officers.

As the deputy chief of protocol, Mrs. Adams has also ably demonstrated her abilities as a supervisor and leader. With an office staff of six, she must routinely manage schedules, events, and taskings to assure the best fit of protocol specialist with job requirement.

Mrs. Adams is a consummate protocol officer whose experience, personality, and dedication fully warrant the designation of Certified Protocol Specialist.

Sincerely,

James W. Peterson
Major
Chief of Protocol
